Guest;
Our Key Club Lt Governor asked for help with transportation for 30 +/- to their Leadership Training event at Livingston High on 6/23/2018
7:00am leave at 3:00pm

A short discussion on the merits of the Trump vs. Kim Summit;
Several comments were noted however,

Jim Barton's comment was well stated;

"If it leads to peace, I'm all for it"!

Omelet Breakfast.

Several Comments concerning "Drill Sargent Becky" and rules for us to follow kept changing as we went along.

Nice facility, good layout, positive comments from customers, but we need six cooking station to alleviate the backlog of orders and shorten wait time.

Key Clubbers were outstanding...again!

Craig's Dad, Bob, worked the entire event and 'barely' complained. A real trooper.

Cleanup crew had to work overtime to meet the "white-glove" expectations of Sgt. Becky.

The hall rental was $1500 plus a cleaning deposit of $500 seemed to be excessive.

Craig & others commented the event went well but choose another location.

John T sold 86 tickets!! John's comment was "I got the prize and didn't have to show up" (He and Carol Ann were on a trip.)

Happy/Sad $'s

John Hertle, an anniversary of sorts. The 46th anniversary of his blind date, 6/12/1972, with his soon-to-be wife Mary Ellen. A discussion of her age, at the time, came up....

Jim Barton sorry he missed the Omelet Breakfast, he claimed his son's wedding was more important.

During several toasts of an excessive amount of SCOTCH one of his cousins said to the Groom... "A husband remembers the crap, a wife remembers...EVERYTHING"

Margaret, Karen & Joy went the Veterans center for their Thursday $5 Lunch, music and dancing. They were rather shocked to see that they were the youngest among the attendees! The band couldn't remember the words to the songs and there was a designated spot to 'park' the walkers. Definitely an event for the elderly.

John Thoming stopped in Patterson the other day and spotted a white Tahoe. He liked it so much he bought his first NEW car...ever... He attended to the Almond Growers Board meeting early today, parked his White Tahoe and went in. When he came out there were so many white Tahoe's it took him a long time to find his.

Craig, His son leaves for Europe for three months.

He went with friends to concert and dinner Birthday celebration. Margaret was there and made Craig by her a bottle of wine... Craig's wife was pissed (at Craig not...)

Joyce went on a Travel Group for 3 days. In Eureka she fell, hit her head, went to Hospital in an ambulance and was not able to continue with the trip. Someone from the Travel Club drove her all the way back to Modesto at no charge. She is feeling much better now.

Harrold's son made the NJ State Hockey team but hurt his knee playing baseball. Out for the season.

Carole Ann had a happy $ but I missed why ☹. She had nothing for John's new truck because that was HIS business not mine.

Charlie Nuygen was re-introduced as a new member. He commented that it's a good thing I have a sense of humor with THIS group.

Don A.

Must be present to win. Don commented that a 'white elephant' package has been added to the choices of the winner.

John Hertle won...again (3rd time)

John picked a bag and actioned it to the club, UN-opened, for $17 $15 from Craig and $2 from Harrold. The mystery bag had a party basket, napkins, plates, cups and beach sign in the shape of a starfish.

 ANNOUNCEMENT**

Next week's meeting (6/19) a 'secrete' ballot will take place. Two individuals have offered their home for our Christmas/Holiday Event;

Vote for Joyce Aakerlund's Home _____

OR

John & Carol Ann Thoming's Home _____

SCIBE's note These notes were transcribed from my own handwriting. I should have been a Doctor because nobody, including ME, can read it. So if I missed something, I probably could not decipher my scribble. (that, or my crappy hearing)
