Harold Petersen is sad his gardener died.

Don Ahrens is sad the Dodgers are in the World Series

Joyce Aakerlund is happy to have her friends here today.

Our Guest Troy Preston is Joyce's nephew. When he was a kid he was in Foster homes and was very appreciative for service organizations that took him shopping at Christmas.

John Hertle sad his dog caused him to lose the newsletter. He is happy for his first cousin that lives in Napa. The fire burned the houses across the street, but his was spared

Terry McGrath was happy his aunt from Napa could use his house for a few days to get away from all the smoke. He went to Avila beach with Pat and promised she would pay big bucks for the both of them for the trip. Or she may try to get out of a fine with an auction item.

John Thoming is happy that Harold will finally get some exercise now that he does not have a gardener

Craig Haupt is happy his son is almost finished with his nursing program. Happy his daughter is on her last rotation for Physical Therapy at English Oaks

Matt Harrington is trying to get reelected to the school board. He also brought some bags that need groceries for a food drive he is helping with

Jim Mesquit is happy that Halloween is almost here.

Our program was presented by Mary Jo Harmon and Jane Shaw. They represent an exercise class called Healthy Aging. They talked about the benefits of exercise for seniors. They showed us some fun exercises we all can do and that will help with your balance.
