The Crab Cioppino Dinner will be on March 16. Tickets are available to sell .We are only selling about 325 tickets. So let us sell out again this year.

A shirt from Cabo brought back by Don Ahrens was auctioned off. It was A Bisbees Fish tournament shirt. It was won by Mike Kumeler with a bid of $20. Joyce Aakerlund pointed out that the Modesto View had 7 Crab feeds scheduled for the month of February.

Happy and sad Bucks!!

Nancy Green had a wonderful on key birthday song by the club. We can really sing nice if we want to.

Nan Jacobs was happy about the key club conclave. They elected a new Lieutenant Governor for the division and a girl from Gregori High was selected. Nan then talked about the Mock Trail Competition for High school students coming up February 5,7 and 13th. She said it is a great event and she will be a judge of the competition.

Don Ahrens was happy/sad about all kinds of things. First for his daughter that would enjoy the Mock Trail competition, because she is so good at arguing. Next for Jerry Short's family cioppinno recipe. Finally he was sad about the missed call in the LAR-New Orleans game.

Jerry Jackman was also sad about the blatant missed call in the NFL game.

John Thoming was sad about the bad call. He was happy that Jeremiah showed up on time. He was also happy he gets to sell tickets to all those people that he bought tickets form this year.

Carole Thoming is happy about her grandson Giano Petucelli's result in his last wrestling tournament. She is happy for her son who is a Los Angeles Rams fan.

Bill Gordon thought Jeremiah did Kiwanis proud last Friday with the speech he gave. He was sad the wrong team won the LAR-NO football game.

John Field is happy his grandson will now be a teenager. He also was happy about the pro golfer that could play both right and left handed.

John Thoming received a Jury Notice. He hopes the time will be less than when he served on the Grand Jury. That lasted for 130 days.
