Ron Freitas lead the Pledge. Don Ahrens lead the Song and Al Menshew the invocation.

A place to hold the crab feed was discussed. The sites we are looking at are the Youth Center downtown or the Elks Club off of Kiernan. The Youth Center is less costly but has a very small kitchen and limited close parking. The Elks Club has a better kitchen and good parking, but will cost more. This week we will try to pick one of the Two to have our Crab feed.

Pat Glatke was willing to pay $1.00 per decade for a nice birthday song. It was so nice she upped the amount to $2.50 per decade. If you are not good at math that means she is starting her eight decade.

Carole Thoming brought a T shirt back from Cozumel. The High bid of $15.00 went to Don Ahrens. Carole then told us about the fabulous 50's cruise she took with John. Most of the popular 50's singers were there to perform. She felt like a kid again. Next November will be the 10 annual 50's Cruise. Carole and John want to go again.

What a fun way to stay young at heart.

The Christmas Party will be at Joyce Aakerlund this Wednesday, December 12, starting at 6 PM. Her address is 3025 Darius Lane off of Rumble. Bring a wine, dessert or appetizer. There will be a gift exchange. Each person needs to bring a $20.00 gift.

Or Santa will bring you a lump of coal.

Happy/Sad stories and issues:

Harold Petersen helped a friend celebrate a 50th wedding anniversary.

Pat Glatke found out her back problem is a bulging disc. Surgery in the future.

Ester Knobel is in her 6th year of her family ringing the bell for donations.

Mike K sad about the passing of George Bush. He is happy about the cute joke told by his granddaughter.

Craig Haupt was sad about the funeral he attended in Carmel. He was happy about play golf at Bayonet Golf course. Then shooting a 95 on same course. While there the wind was bad and broke some limbs off of some trees. He made sure all his drives were straight and he did not have to go under any trees to get his golf ball. Look out!!

Zacharias was happy about his new shot gun.

Don Ahrens has a brand new kitchen and wants to show it off. A party or dinner soon!!

Joy Swick went to Calistoga and Cloverdale for a fun event. Toys for Tots.

John Thoming had a sore wrist from recent surgery, but he can still hold a wine glass!

Carole was glad the surgery was minor and he can still hold the wine glass. She was also happy about the great song she got last week for her birthday. All the men gave her the nice version of "Happy Birthday"

Joyce Aakerlund was sad about the passing of President Bush.

Our Speaker was Randy Siefkin he was introduced by Faith Knobel. Good job by Faith. Randy is on the Board of Directors for the State Theater. The State is a real old time one screen theater. It was built in 1934 and has a balcony, pipe organ, under the stage dressing room and a real projectionist up in the booth. It is a great place to see shows and movies. Go down and support this one of a kind place
