We had a take-over by Valley Charter School Key Club. Elizabeth Hearst is their advisor.

Gabe Para is their president and lead the pledge. Skylar Kneed and Byran Miller lead the National Anthem. Then Byran gave the invocation. Also from Valley Charter were Maleena Lanchipebre, Kaili Helms and Rylee Yarnell.

Chris Field was a guest today, brought by her husband.

Craig Haupt reported we will have a Shrimp Feed on September 21 at the Veterans Hall. Also the Crab Feed has been scheduled for January 25, 2020. We could not get a date in February, they were all booked up. Happy/sad bucks and fines

The Key club brought a list of fineable events. You were fined $1 if you were wearing anything maroon colored, born in Modesto, wearing jewelry, wearing glasses or socks, if you have a cell phone or were born between 1950 and 1970. Pretty much everyone paid something.

John Field paid for his rental house selling and escrow closing in just 13 days.

John Hertle was happy to be the selling agent.

Pat Glatke is happy her book sale is almost finished.

John Thoming was happy to see the charter school here today.

Dan Fitzgerald is happy April 15 has now come and gone.

Carole Thoming paid for 5 items on the key club list.

Craig Haupt had a fun trip to Palm Dessert. He rode the tram to top of the mountain and saw snow. He was not happy his son beat him playing golf.

Joyce Aakerlund had fun riding the train at Santa Cruz.

Terry McGrath wishes we would use the Microphone so he can hear what is going on. He was the secret greeter and 4 people did not shake his hand.

Harold Petersen had a hard day at the dentist. But his tooth looks great.

Margaret Trammell was happy her son was here for a visit and had 5 things on the list.

Pat Glatke, Joy Swick, Mike Kumler, John Hertle, Craig Haupt and Mark Davis all paid for multiple items on The Key Club list

It was a fun day and the Key Club made a ton of money. We ended up collecting with the auction items 400.00 for Valley Charter High School
