Call to order @ 12:12 by President Craig

Patriotic Song led By Don A

Pledge led by Harold P

Invocation given by Pres Craig

GUEST 'Skipper' Brian Ferguson Sea Scouts

The Skipper thanked us for our ongoing support. They now have 10 Sea Scouts and 5 volunteer adults in the program. Their group just completed a 4 day voyage/cruise around the delta and SF Bay seeing East Brother island and lighthouse, San Francisco Skyline and several other locations on their cruise. They will be volunteering at our Crab Cioppino Feed as well as a couple of other crab feeds. We have a tentative re-schedule for our Kiwanis Cruise for April 25th.

Crab Cioppino Feed;

All tickets are out, if you have some you won't sell bring them back on Tuesday next week. Craig and others will do a walk-through at the veterans Center next week. We will need someone with a 'Safe-Serve' Certificate. (Sergio @ Papapolloni may help us) Hair nets or baseball caps will be required.

Pat: Auction Items are needed.

Craig has donated a watch for the auction...has a dead battery though. He "Claims" it's worth $700 and he's never worn it! (of course... battery is dead!!)

DCM Saturday. Charlie N & John H attending.

Birthdays

Nancy Church had a birthday. Went out to dinner with her husband and received some Tequila as a gift... had some SHOTS. $20 for a nice birthday song.

President Craig tried to let his birthday slip by! He finally fessed-up say he went to Pismo Beach for golf, a BBQ with his condo neighbors and for $20 John H volunteers to lead the CLUB REDITION!

Happy/Sad $s

John H: $1 for being a worried dad of an 18 yr. old, $ He hurt his hand 3 ½ yrs. ago & they had to cut off his wedding ring. His wife put it in a safe place and hasn't found it yet! So for Christmas his wife gave him a new wedding ring. $3 for the passing of former Mayor Carmen Sabatino. He reminded the Club that while Mayor he refused to give his 'State of The City' speech to Rotary so he did it once at Greater Modesto Kiwanis, once at North Modesto Kiwanis and a Lions Club.

A Celebration of Life is planned for; January 18 @ 11:30

@ the Revival Center 825 7th Street (@ I St) Modesto

209-522-3066 for more info

Jerry and his wife are taking 'another' long trip to Hong Kong, Viet Nam, Taiwan and other spots for 70 DAYS.

Charlie N had a sad $ for not being able to help or attend the Crab Ciappino Feed.

Pat has to leave early.

John T $4 for 4 day days at the Rose Parade activities (didn't say happy or sad $s)

Craig $5 for Birthday, golf, Prime Rib and OJ (with mixings) and no hangover. Dameron Hospital is being taken over by Adventist Health which means he will be very busy with the changeover.

Pat G. Friends of the Library had 150 people at their Hogwarts Event. She had to learn the 'lingo' too. 2020 marks the 100 anniversary of Women's Voting Rights. Mississippi was the last state to Ratify the amendment in 1984!

Bill G. $10 sad buck for disappointing everyone that their invoices were not ready. He also noted the Raiders had not lost this year.

No Marble game today... we forgot!

PROGRAM;

Donna Linder was elected County Clerk-Recorder last January 1. Her job includes;

- Registrar of Voters
- Marriage Licenses
- Passports Document storage and retrieval for documents dating back to 1884.

- Recordings
- Forms and Vital Statistics
- Lots of others too.

Four satellite offices in Turlock, Oakdale, Patterson and Salida

For the upcoming election, 3/3/20, there are 116 polling places, over 1000 pool workers. The 'adopt-a-pol' program helps non-profits make $5-600 to 'man' a polling place. Roughly 75% of all voters vote by mail in Stanislaus County. All have to be 'hand' verified. All voting machines were required to be replace after she took office so her assistant, Sondra (sorry, forgot your last name), demonstrated the new machines for us.
