Don Ahrens led us in singing the song God Bless America. Charlie Nguyen led the Pledge Carol Thoming gave the Invocation.

Three Kiwanians did not shake Paul Hearst's Hand. He was the secret greeter and they paid $1.

May 7th we will be going to the Woolgrowers for dinner.

Craig will try to get the Veterans Center for the Shrimp Feed on September 19 of this year. For the Crab Feed for next year he will try to get January 23.

John Thoming is having a birthday this week. Carol is taking him to the Peppermill in Reno. He paid $40 for a song and we sang really nice. One of the best songs we have done.

Happy/Sad Bucks

Nan had to cancel her trip to Cabo do to the Coronavirus.

John Hertle said his neighbor is in Italy and can not get out.

Mark Davis hears a car alarm and thought it was his. Turned out to be the neighbors.

Harold Petersen's grandson got some free Hockey sticks. Saved over $1000.

John Thoming happy he is not on a cruise. Because a 10 day cruise could turn into another 14 days in quarantine.

Craig Haupt's Mom is in the hospital, but she is getting better. He is going to Pismo.

Our Program was by John Scheuber it was called LIFE.

He started with how the circumstances we were born into impacted our lives. Then how education and your job impact your life. Attitude is important to how we approach each day. Then he talked about what kind of attitude we need when we retire. Then we need to get involved, stay healthy and be adaptable to changes around us. Then he talked about being involved in politics and religion. You should thank those who gave you and opportunity. Finally you need to write your own Eulogy and autobiography. It was a great program
