11:35am

Meeting Call to order By Past President John Hertle via ZOOM. We had up to 14 in attendance today!

Paul H lead the patriotic song (not quite the same as in person...you only hear yourself and I sounded baaaadddd.) I told you so.

Lt Gov. Lori lead the Pledge

Al Menshew our invocation.

GUESTS:

Lt Gov. Lori

Congressman Josh Harder

Brie Gonzales, Aid to Josh Harder

Program (started first due to time constraints)

Congressmen Harder chatted briefly on happening in California and the US, Payroll Protection Program, New business opening in Patterson, some effects of Covid-19. Questions were asked concerning availability of Covid-19 Testing, The vacant Air Force Base and a couple of others I forgot.

Congressman also requested that we keep him informed of our club meetings as he would like to meet us 'live' & face to face.

Lt Gov. Lori; updated us on the international convention which has been cancelled but there will be numerous training sessions that will be conducted via Video conferencing June 12 9:am-12:00pm. Watch for email updates.

Jeremiah updated us on the 4th of July Parade. A meeting is schedule (today I think) to discuss ways to hold the parade taking Covid-19 challenges.

Happy/Sad $s

Several comments about Memorial Day along with a moment of silence for those that have fallen.

Pat Had $3 for 3 grandchildren graduating and $3 sad for 3 who could not go through the ceremony.

John Hertle echoed the sentiment as his son's graduation is going to be on Youtube.

Nan commented that the KEY Club DCM will be June 1 via ZOOM.

Papapolloni's will be opening soon! Keep an eye on more info for when we can go back to in-person meetings. We may have ZOOM available as well.

BOARD MEETING 6:00PM
