Speaker:

Roy Stevens, Opera Modesto (Formerly Townsend Opera Players)

Roy and his wife took over about 2 years ago after retiring from a 30 yr. Career as an international opera performer where he performed in more that 25 countries and 14 languages in his 30 years touring.

Roy got his 'start' when at 11 years old he was 'forced' by his 4 sisters to audition for a play. He went on to perform in 14 musicals in Modesto, won a $50 Scholarship at graduation to be used towards voice lessons. 5 lessons turned is not-so-good voice into, eventually, Olympic Style Performer for the next 30 years.

Covid-19 has changed the way people receive entertainment. Staying at home many people listen to music as live entertainment has shut down. Most venues cannot survive @ 25% capacity even 'if' people would show up. Most people really miss live performances of music, plays, sporting events, movies even parades.

Groups like Modesto Opera, Gallo Theater, State Theater have to find other ways to perform their craft. Live ZOOM performances help a little.

For the last 3 years Opera Modesto has operated 'Summer Opera Institute for Teens'. In 8 days they had 394 trainings on ZOOM, then 2 days of green-screen filming for opera film all staged and merged together to look like they well there at the same time together.

During their 30 years touring they home schooled their daughter. Now 24, she won numerous voice and stage award, however, she never wanted to be a performer. Instead she now a stage director and director of Operas. With Modesto Opera she is helping produce an Opera Movie, 6 stories of ASOP's Fables for the online 'big' screen. Largely an undertaking by children with the help of Creator Labs and Director/Producer (Rick?) Swanson of Turlock (see The Irrigationist on U-tube, one of the most award winning Documentaries in recent times. A Documentary of TIDs 125 years). Swanson is also lending Opera Modesto their “RED” Cameras (Retailing at $79,500 each) and drones to help produce the Movie.

They hope to premier at the State Theater in January. See More at operamodesto.org * RStevens@operamodesto.org * 523-6426
