President Charlie called the meeting to order at 11:45 and John Hertle led the Pledge and Craig Haupt handled the prayer, followed up by a singing of America the Beautiful, led by Don Ahrens. It actually sounded pretty good).

Joe Bradley was introduced as a guest of John Hertle.

I guess I should stop right now and say that the meeting was outside, next to a pond with several waterfalls, so I did not actually hear every word, but I bluffed my way through.

Charlie then asked for Birthdays and/or Anniversaries, but the only birthday was for Jeremiah, and he wasn't here, so we'll "catch" him next time.

Charlie then went into Happy/Sad bucks and got a few responses: Craig had a sad buck, something about a water heater at his cabin, and then put in a happy buck as he was in Pismo last week. Ron Freitas was sad as he was here and not in San Diego...Pat Glatke put in a happy $20 as she will be celebrating a birthday in San Diego in about a week. John Hertle put in a sad buck as his friend and former Kiwanian, Mike Zeiter is now in quarantine with Covid.

Charlie's son kept us all entertained during the meeting by running behind his dad and waving at all of us. The kid can really be entertaining.....

It was nice to see Loretta Menshew with us today, hopefully she will make it a habit.

Pat Glatke then introduced our program: Sue Zwahlen, who is running for Mayor of our fine city. She told us a little about herself and family, and all the years she has spent in Modesto. Sue previously served on the Modesto City School Board and was twice President. She was a nurse at Doctor's hospital for over 20 years. She gave a very nice presentation and makes me believe she would be a great Mayor. Next week we will have the other Candidate, Jim Ridenhour.

I would encourage you to try to attend, as whomever we elect as our next Mayor will be important to Modesto. An informed voter is a smart voter.....

Our guest, Sue Zwahlen , won the marble game, but alas, was not successful. Today it was for $35.

This seems like a pretty short newsletter, so maybe I didn't hear as much as I thought over the waterfalls.....Oh well, if you want to know more, you should make an effort to show up. We do miss you

Your faithful editor, Terry
