No. Modesto is Hosting The American Graffiti Car Show June 10-12.
They expect 1500 entries! Their Show is the largest non-profit Car Show west of the Mississippi. For the 1st time, they will have a Beer Booth at MJC during the Show. It turns out DR. 'B' is a Beer Fan!

Happy Sad $s

John T was happy he made it 'out' of MJC!

Carole's Car needed tires so they got tires and 'on-the-way' stopped at Jackson Rancheria where they got pulled over by CHP with 10 month expired license tags. Told...fix it! Ana, was happy she wasn't sitting at a table with nothing but No. Modesto Members!

John F $10 tried to Call Bill G's office several times today but no one answered so he was surprised he is here.

Bill G, $20, tax season over! Now he just has to handle all the 'extensions' that he filed.

Dan F $10.... Same reason but only $10 because his office is smaller than Bill's.

Program: MJC

Dr. Bontupotti ("born-to-party) Dr. B

MJC President beginning 1/2021

Dr B is happy with the relationship with Kiwanis and the Car Show and is a Beer Fan.

MJC has had a relationship with Modesto For 100 years!

In 2019 the Student enrollment was just over 24,000

2020, pandemic numbers dropped to just under 18,000, 100% on-line classes.

Fall 2021 enrollment is up 8% with 80% of classes 90% full. 45% to start, now 60% of the classes being in-person classes.

They expect to be close to full strength by fall 2022.

The future MJC is looking at more flexible class scheduling to include "Roomers AND Zoomers" at the same time. Many technology shifts and upgrades taking place with ever expanding student and faculty options.

John Schuber, MJC Foundation (previous recipient of our John Veneman Award)

The Foundation holds funds for Student Scholarships and Student needs.

The Foundation is on a 100 year anniversary fundraiser with their goal of $10 million in reach. They want to raise the Foundation balance to $32 Million so the interest will continue to fund:

$750-$800,000 in Scholarships per year

$150-$200,000 in student needs. In many cases help with housing.

Expansion and upgrades as needed
They are requesting Grants for a specific use. $25,000+ donation will gain the individual or group 'Naming-Rights' for a variety of items. (example, John Thoming Ag Pavilion)

Numerous questions and comments arose.

John & Jeremiah Announced the MJC will be the Grand Marshals of the 4th of July Parade and events this year.

John W Hertle
