Happy/Sad $$

John T: $5 happy to see our ole friend 90yr old Bob Haupt

Sad $ His Farm prices are down but store prices are up!

Happy $ " still on the right side of the dirt"

Disgusting $ for most politicians

Bob H: happy to be here

(didn't catch his sad $)

Richard: $ for being here

Michael H; (new member) $5 echoed some of John T's sentiments after spending a week in 'DC'. Happy his friend Jeff (&new Member) was elected District Attorney

Jim M: nice crowd today

Ron Freitas: $ for having his grandkids around. His namesake (Ron Freitas) won San Joaquin Co Dist. Attorney

Kevin went to Granddaughters graduation (Washington?) and watched 598 Grads.

The day after he left the entire family came down with Covid-19.

Bill G: Happy for the Warriors (no comment on the Raiders)

Paul H: happy to be over his head cold

John F: $5 for his 3 yr. old granddaughter pushed a 'bead' in her ear & couldn't get it out. 8 hrs. in Memorial ER couldn't get it out, sent to Merced Children's Hospital to try there! Don't think she will do that again!!

John H: Happy for the Warriors Sad$ for Don A on east coast for his brother's funeral.

John T: $5 for his son's retirement and in 3 weeks moving to Oklahoma!?

PROGRAM:

Modesto's Landmark Preservation Commission

Harrison Power, Exec Director

Moved to Modesto 4 years ago to follow his girlfriend/wife after meeting her in a History class at UC Berkley (& take a job). He is originally from Chico CA.

The commission started in 1988 and in the early 90's developed a list of 59 homes and buildings worth historic preservation.

Harrison talked about a few buildings that are no longer here & why

Southern Pacific Depot, 1870. Damaged then removed in 1982 (current Depot, now the bus station was already built)

Modesto Bank Building 1893. Brownstone style @ 10th & I St. Fire damage and demo 1940.

An attempt to save the clock tower was not successful.

Tynan Hotel (later State Hotel) Victorian Style 1890-1966

Stanislaus Co Courthouse 1873-Demoed in 1957

Structures still with us:

McClure House 1882 aka Hogan family Home, sold to the City in 1973.

was discussed and may be sold with agreement with the Estate.

McClure House was set on 'back-burner' in 1976 as the McHenry Mansion was purchased by the Julio Gallo Foundation and gifted to the City. Given the location downtown funds were used for its restoration.

Beatty Building 1929 11th & I. Originally Drs. offices featured hot & cold running water and the 1st building with all electric heat.

Fire Station #1 1939 one of the few Art Deco buildings in Modesto

Stanislaus County Hall of Records 1938. "New Deal" funds were used to complete construction. It was the 1st "International Style" building in California, the architect was a Modesto native Russel De Lappe

McHenry Mansion

McHenry Museum

Q & A

John Hertle made a few comments as to how the program works as his building, The Wissner Medical Office Building (circa 1936) @ 901 McHenry is Historical Landmark #27.
