Jeremiah: The Salvation Army ‘Kick-Off’ raised $108,000 this year. The Kiwanis/Rotary Team raised $27,000.

This years’ total was $70000 less than 2020

Jeremiah’s Birthday! He has $20 for us. He spent time in North Carolina with all 5 of his biological sisters and mother over Thanksgiving and his birthday. It’s first time in 15 years they have all been together in one location!

Jeremiah “chose” (after some prodding) rendition so his son could get a dose of Kiwanis Hospitality.

Happy Sad $'s

John H: remembrance $ for 12/7/1941 Pearl Harbor John ordered new hearing aid that arrived yesterday but the were the wrong ones, so it's a HAPPY $ because he couldn't hear the club rendition well!

Paul H: $5, He sold his 5th wheel and bought 2007 Motor Home with a 450 V-10 engine and only 35,000 miles on it. There were a few questions about gas mileage (or lack thereof)

: Had $5 left after going to Black Oak. He found a fellow Kiwanian there, had dinner while Bill G 'forced' too much wine on him. It has taken 2 days to get over his hangover!

Bill G: $10 for dinner at Black Oak with John & Carole T. raiders and 49ers Losses.

Carol T: Had to See John F for a cracked tooth, she will need a crown.

John T mentioned something about not seeing bill yet.

Charlie: He took his mother and wife to a jazz/rock concert in Berkeley. Had a great time but parking was $45.

Phillip H: Happy to be here amongst good company and really happy the Stock Market is doing well for him.

Jerry: $2 for his grandson's 9th birthday. He 'face-timed' his daughter and he is amazed at the technology seeing his daughter and Grandson 3,000 mile away. Jerry also has a relationship with India have spent several years there. The have passed China's population of 1.4 billion people! However, their pace has slowed so it is now holding not increasing in numbers.

Craig H: Spent the weekend in Carson City... Alone as Diane couldn't make the trip. Had dinner with his Aunt & Uncle and checked on his brother who is building a home in the area. Looking forward to the Holiday Party on Thursday!

Dan F: Had dinner with niece's family in Monterey. They looked up and couldn't find the 2 yr. old. They locked the restaurant down and started looking for the 2 yr. old. It turned out she went to the bathroom with another family member. All' well that ends well!
