Key Club takeover's of our meeting are always interesting, and this was no exception. Leaders of and one young lady. I neglected to get all their names. The president is Caesar Gonzalez. Others were Jason, Wilson, and Danielle- who carried the fine pot. After the pledge it took Jan Jaeger's prodding to get the kids to do a patriotic song. In fact Kiwanis members began "God Bless America" ourselves and unmoving mouths suggested some Key Clubbers didn't know the words. To them perhaps patriotic songs are residuals of an earlier age. Caesar unhesitatingly led us in prayer.

A scruffy Bob Lynch slipped in late. As if to compensate for his tardiness he brought a young woman, Berniece, whom he declared to be a prospective member. Another fresh face was Paul Vogelzang who is visiting from Virginia.

Committee Reports: Terry McGrath said he still needs money for placemat ads from the recent pancake breakfast. Pat Glatke announced the thousands of dry meal packs we prepared last month are now on a ship destined for the Philippines. Karen Peterson said "Its a go" for the July 4th parade. Anthony Butera added that more volunteers are needed to "man the barricades". See Dan Fitzgerald if you can help.

Jan Jaeger, our Key Club honcho, said "all our clubs are meeting monthly" thru the summer. She named an array of activities including a bowlathon, and a Kiss the Pig fundraising game. On a more somber note Karen Peterson said " we need a President Elect!"

Anniversaries : George Frederickson announced he has been married "65 years today!" "To just one woman!"

Happy and Sad: Jim Mesquit said he had a fine visit to his son's apartment and business in Southern California. Hugh Brereton pledged a buck in noting that "George's marriage is now eligible to Medicare. Jan tossed in two bucks with "congratulations to George and to the Beyer Hi Key Club for the takeover of our Kiwanis meeting today." Pat Glatke gave 5$ in congrats to George and Marilyn on their extraordinary anniversary. Jim Mesquit also gave a dollar in thanks to the Key Clubbers for coming. Roger Vogelzang gave a greenback in thanks for having his son visit for the week, all the way from Virginia. Anthony Butera gave a buck in thanks that Bob Lynch is back on his feet after and auto accident. Whoa! So that explains why he's a bit scruffy. He's letting his bruises heal. Hal Conkey said he's happy that he's the same age as President H. W. Bush but didn't have the compulsion to jump out of a helicopter. Bob Lynch had the last word: "I am happy to be alive."

The Key Clubbers brought an array of goodies to auction off. There was limited participation in the auction, probably because few of the items were healthy. A basket of movie DVD's and chocolates was the top draw. It went to Pat Glatke for $17. Dan Fitzgerald got a batch of cookies for just 5$ and homemade lemon bars for $9. He passed them around to everyone. Bob Lynch got a box of chocolates to share with Berniece for 10$. A "breakfast bag" including organic coffee went to Joyce A. for 11$ and Karen Peterson hauled in homemade brownies for $15.

The raffle was won on the first draw by Joyce Aakerlund. It was $30 and Joyce gave $10 back to the fine pot. Jan and Pat also had their numbers called but all they got were CA lottery scratchers.

The Beyer Hi Key Club president recited an impressive list of activities they have done since December when some of them went to Pasadena to work on floats for the Rose Bowl parade. They currently have 57 paid members. (I wish we could say that.)

The grand finale of the meeting was called the "Fishbowl Game" where participants made a big circle and attempted to recall and recite the names of all who had cited names, in sequence before them. Many of the wisest Kiwanians unhesitatingly paid $5 NOT to participate in the game. In fact your scribe was too squeamish to watch the spectacle.

Finally the Key Club president, Caesar, announced that the entire amount collected today came to $173 and would be donated to Sierra Vista Family Services. They thanked our club and said "we can't do it without you."
